Exodus 5 begins with God's representatives, Moses and Aaron, saying to Pharaoh, "Let my people go."

Pharaoh's first response indicates where his heart was and why it would take tragedy to humble him. In verse 2, he says, "Who is the Lord, that I should obey his voice and let Israel go?"

Mission Bible Class

The words of Moses, "Let my People Go" were said because the Pharaoh refused the Children of Israel (the twelve tribes) to go to the desert with the purpose of worshiping God. These words of Moses were a petition, a demand made to the authority to let the people free.

People Call News

Let My People Go! is the most delightful movie I've seen in ages. Nicolas Maury is so utterly adorable, so sweetly, innocently, devastatingly sexy, so fascinating to watch every second he's on screen, that I wish he'd already starred in dozens of movies so I could watch them all.
