"Lying on the Couch" not only shows how therapists can become deeply involved in the complexities of individual's inner lives and relationships, but also how complex and challenging their own lives can become through the honesty or deception presented by their toughest clients.

Mr. Stryver was lying on his sofa, looking at his ceiling. They traveled in the night, halting before daybreak, and lying about until the twilight fell. He referred to her, as if she were lying in our presence. My glance had fallen, but a few moments before, on the fragments of a broken sword, lying among the hay.
